Bicentenary Campaign Signs, Caps and T-Shirts

GREY T-SHIRT AND CAP

CORFLUTE SIGN - SMALL

200 years ago on December 25th, 1814 the Reverend Samuel Marsden preached on the text: "Behold, I bring you tidings of great joy" (Luke 2:10) to Māori and Pākehā in the Bay of Islands.

We are celebrating this year's bicentenary with a campaign of activities to share the gospel in our communities. Bishop Kelvin invites each of you to participate in making our campaign a success: "we can expect to see the Good News spread across the diocese in a sea of fluorescent yellow".

The bright yellow walking shirts, caps and billboards from Te Hārinui Hikoi will again feature in this campaign.

During T-Shirt week (8 – 12 Dec), worshipping communities will be encouraged to wear bright yellow, display 'Good News' signage and distribute Christmas Invitation / Activity Cards.

More resources will become available to assist you in sharing the gospel. Currently available for purchase:

- T-Shirts
- Caps
- Good News Corflute signs (Large and Small)

"I hope that the distinctive billboards will become a talked about feature in every worshipping community", says Bishop Kelvin.
