

Welcome to this meal, in the name of Christ.
We come to share in God's love.
We come to share our food and our lives.

As we break bread together,
we also break ourselves open to each other
We come to express our faith and our thanks

Living God bless this food and this fellowship.
God of abundance, we give you thanks for this food and we remember those who do not have enough.

Eternal God of love, feed us, as we face your future together.
As we explore the challenges before us, keep us aware of the needs of all those for whom you lived and died.

The Gospel is read

So we remember the words and actions of Jesus
as he shared his last meal with the disciples.
Now it is time to share bread as Jesus shared it with his friends.

On the night before he died,
Jesus took the bread that was on the table;
he gave thanks to God and broke the bread.

The bread is broken

He gave it to his disciples, and said:
Take, eat, this is my body, which is given for you;
do this to remember me.

*Around the table share the bread with your neighbours
using these or similar words*
The body of Christ, given for you.

We share our meal together Tables discuss the reading and share in prayer for each other and the world

People of God we have shared a meal, the word and in prayer
Now it is time to share the cup as Jesus did.

After supper Jesus picked up a cup;
he gave God thanks
then gave it to the disciples and said:
Drink this all of you,
it is my blood of the new covenant
it is not shed just for you but for all for the forgiveness of sins;
every time you drink it, remember me.

*Around the table share the cup with your neighbours
using these or similar words*
The blood of Christ, shed for you.

Lord God, our meal is ended, but your feast continues.
Sustained by this food we go into your world
to work with you in the creation of your future.

We who have shared this meal, are filled with Christ's love and life.
Thank you for feeding us with your body and blood.
we go now to proclaim the love and life of Christ until he comes.

May the peace of Christ rest upon you as you love and serve God in your mission and ministry to the world.
Amen
